MY GOALS FOR 2022

Brainstorm three goals you have for the new year. Your goals can be things you want to accomplish at school or at home. You may want to make a family goal or a personal goal. It may be working on something new or getting better at something you can already do. Think about goals you can work towards reaching. Visualize and draw yourself accomplishing each goal in the square next to your written goal.

GOAL ONE:
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

Newspapers in Education