

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH
SPELLING BEE
A C T I V I T I E S

CROSSWORD

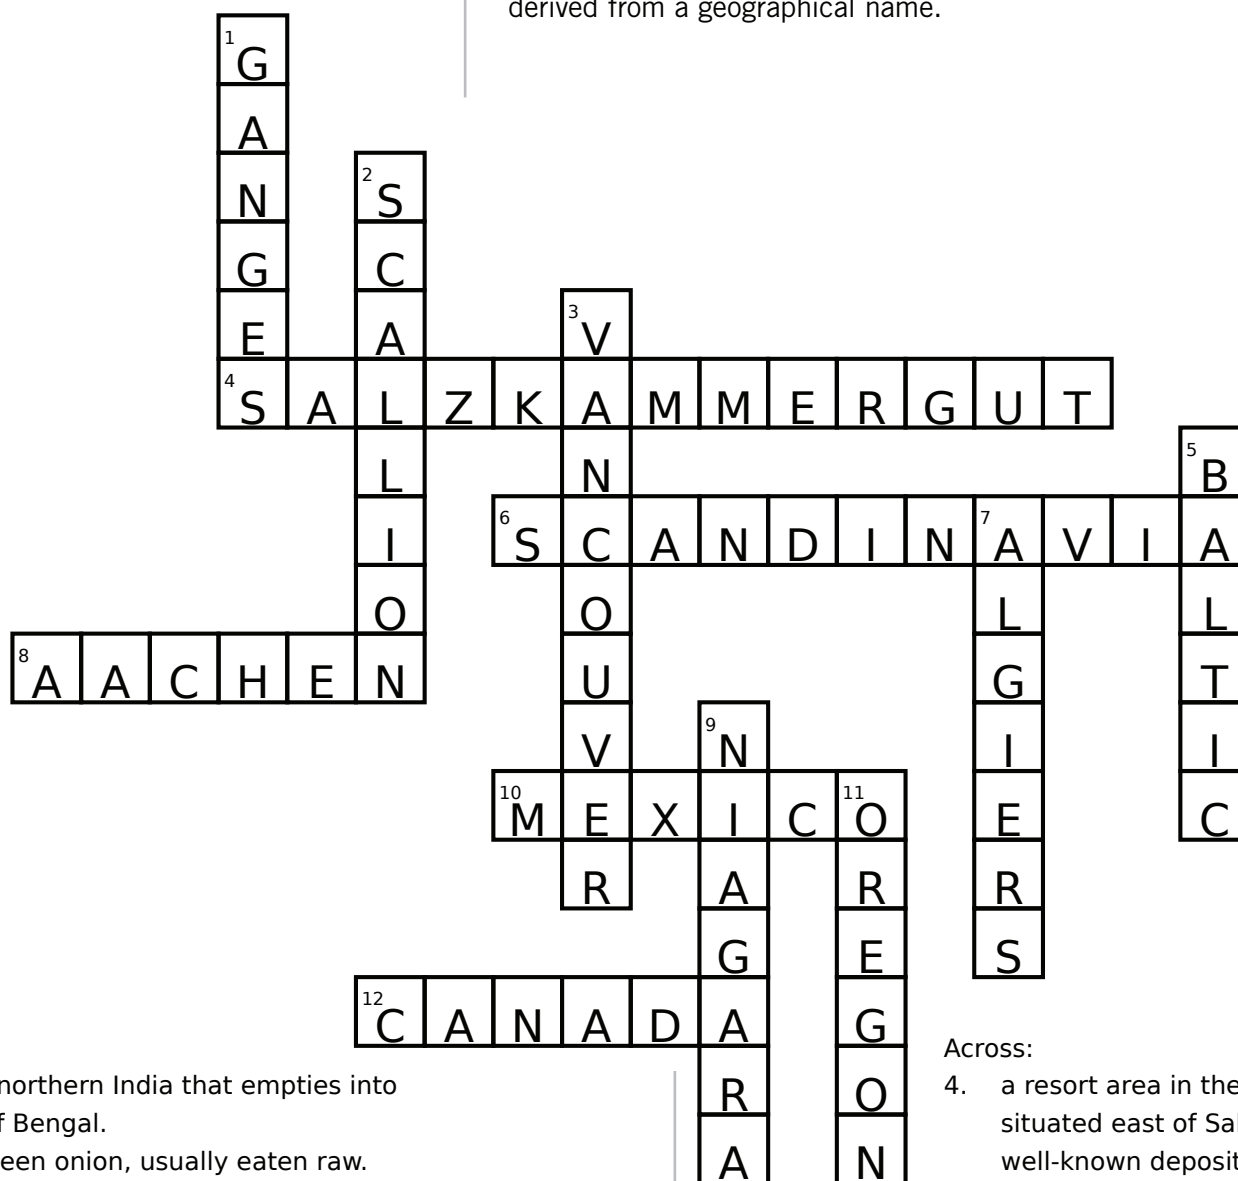

PRESENTED BY

LINDENWOOD
UNIVERSITY

DIRECTIONS

Complete the crossword by filling in the correct spelling word that fits each clue.

Note: All of the words used in this puzzle are pertaining to geography or derived from a geographical name.

Down:

1. a river in northern India that empties into the Bay of Bengal.
2. a small green onion, usually eaten raw.
3. a city in British Columbia, Canada.
5. having to do with Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania.
7. the capital of Algeria, a port city on the Bay of _____ (an inlet of the Mediterranean Sea).
9. a deluge.
11. a state in the northwestern United States that extends to the Pacific.

Across:

4. a resort area in the north of Austria, situated east of Salzburg and harboring well-known deposits of salt.
6. Sweden, Norway, and Denmark.
8. a German city in the western part of the country, close to the borders with the Netherlands and Belgium.
10. a country in southern North America.
12. a North American country that stretched from the northern border of the United States to the Arctic, from the Atlantic to the Pacific.